

Pave your own Path.

The journey begins here.

We offer full-time positions at our growing office in Oslo

A.T. Kearney is a strategic management consulting firm, working with the world's leading organizations to achieve lasting, tangible results. Our ambition is to be best – not biggest. We expect our people to take advantage of the opportunities we offer to develop original, bold and implementable plans. We strive for a diverse, challenging and intellectually rewarding work environment.

You will work with peers to help our clients solve their most mission-critical issues, as you expand your capabilities and pursue your passions.

A.T. Kearney offers

- Exciting and challenging tasks from day one
- Learnings and development through hands-on experience
- Steep learning curve in a fast-paced environment
- Down-to-earth and open environment where opinions are asked for and valued
- Excellent career opportunity
- International work experience

You should apply if you

- Are in pursuit or hold a MSc degree with excellent results
- Have great analytical skills combined with open mind and a collaborative working style
- Are fluent in one Scandinavian language and in English
- Dare to challenge yourself, the team and our conventional thinking to be the best
- Have a passion for delivering extraordinary results together with the team

Please apply online by 10 September 2017 via our webpage <http://www.atkearney.no/careers/apply>